

HOUSE BILL No. 1443

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 35-38-8.

Synopsis: Expungement of certain conviction records. Allows a sentencing court to expunge the records of certain felony and misdemeanor convictions committed before a person was 25 years of age if 12 years have passed since: (1) the completion of the person's sentence; and (2) the satisfaction of any other obligations imposed on the person as a part of the sentence. Allows a law enforcement agency, prosecuting attorney, or court to gain access to permanently sealed records under certain circumstances. Provides that if a court orders a person's records to be expunged, the person: (1) shall be treated for all purposes as if the person had not been arrested for or convicted of the felony or misdemeanor recorded in the expunged records; and (2) may legally state on an application for employment or any other document that the person has not been arrested for or convicted of the felony or misdemeanor recorded in the expunged records.

Effective: July 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL No. 1443

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning criminal law and procedure.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 35-38-8 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]:

Chapter 8. Expungement of Conviction Records

Sec. 1. This chapter applies to:

- (1) all felonies and misdemeanors regardless of when an offense was committed; and
- (2) all records, including juvenile records, created as a result of an allegation that a person committed a felony or misdemeanor before the person became twenty-five (25) years of age.

Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), twelve (12) years after the date a person completes the person's sentence and satisfies any other obligations imposed on the person as a part of the sentence, the person may petition a sentencing court to expunge from:

- (1) a court's files;

(2) the files of the department of correction; and
 (3) the files of any other person who provided treatment or services to the petitioning person under a court order; the records concerning the person's involvement in criminal or juvenile court proceedings.

(b) A person convicted of any of the following before, on, or after the date the person became twenty-five (25) years of age may not petition a court under subsection (a):

- (1) Murder (IC 35-42-1-1).
- (2) A sex crime under IC 35-42-4.
- (3) A crime in which the victim suffered serious bodily injury.
- (4) A crime that involved the use of a deadly weapon.
- (5) A crime that involved a victim less than eighteen (18) years of age.
- (6) A crime of violence not described in subdivisions (1) through (5).
- (7) More than one (1) felony.

Sec. 3. In considering whether to grant an expungement petition under this chapter, the court may review the following:

- (1) Whether the person has been rehabilitated to the court's satisfaction.
- (2) Any other mitigating factors, including the following:
 - (A) Job performance.
 - (B) Job retention.
 - (C) Community service.
 - (D) Fulfillment of family and child support obligations.
 - (E) Completion of restitution to the victim.

Sec. 4. The court may not grant an expungement petition under this chapter if the person has been convicted of:

- (1) any felony; or
- (2) a Class A misdemeanor;

that the person committed on or after the day the person became twenty-five (25) years of age.

Sec. 5. If the court grants the expungement petition of a person under this chapter, the court shall do the following:

- (1) Order:
 - (A) the department of correction; and
 - (B) each:
 - (i) law enforcement agency; and
 - (ii) other person;
- who incarcerated, provided treatment for, or provided other services for the person under an order of the court;

to prohibit the release of the person's records or information in the person's records to anyone without a court order.

(2) Order any:

(A) state;

(B) regional; or

(C) local;

central repository for criminal history information to send the person's records to the court.

(3) Seal any court records related to the allegation referred to in section 1 of this chapter on which a felony conviction was based and any proceeding related to the allegation.

(4) Notify the clerk of the supreme court to seal any records in the clerk's possession concerning:

(A) the allegation described in subdivision (3); or

(B) any proceeding related to the allegation;

if an appeal was taken.

Sec. 6. If an expungement petition of a person is granted under this chapter, information concerning the person's arrest or conviction may not be placed or retained in any state central repository for criminal history information.

Sec. 7. (a) If an expungement petition of a person is granted under this chapter, the records of:

(1) the sentencing court;

(2) a juvenile court;

(3) a court of appeals; and

(4) the supreme court;

concerning the person shall be permanently sealed. Other records concerning the person may be given to the person or destroyed.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a law enforcement agency, prosecuting attorney, or court may submit a written application to a court that granted an expungement petition under this chapter to gain access to any records that were permanently sealed under subsection (a). If a person who submits a written application under this subsection shows good cause for unsealing the records described in subsection (a), the court that granted the expungement petition shall:

(1) order the records to be unsealed; and

(2) allow the person who submitted the written application to have access to the records.

If a court orders records to be unsealed under this subsection, the court shall order the records to be permanently resealed at the earliest possible time after the reasons for unsealing the records
